Conyers, GA-. On May 14, Elks Aidmore, Inc. in partnership with The Georgia Department of Natural Resources hosted over 150 participants at its 5th Annual Kids Katch Fishing Contest.

The Kids Katch Fishing Contest focus is to introduce the public to the joy of fishing and to promote a better understanding of the natural environment. "Each participant was allowed to take home 25 fish and the lake was fully stocked so most participants caught an abundance of fish," said Abe Wilkinson, CEO, Elks Aidmore, Inc.

We would like to especially recognized Kids Katch 2011 winners: Catfish- Dylan Seabolt - 1 lb 5oz, Wesley Burgess - 1 lb 1 oz, and Caitlyn Clines - 1 lb; Bass: Joshua West - 9 oz; Bream-Jahmari Kelly- 1 oz; and Albino Catfish- Jaimie Tarleton - 14 oz.

Kids Katch 2011 was sponsored by The Georgia Department of Natural Resources; The Stock Market Country Store; O'Reilly Auto Parts; Lowe's Home Improvement; Cowan Ace Hardware; local Boy Scout troops; and received significant in-kind logistic support from Snapping Shoals EMC.

Elks Aidmore, Inc. has an eight decade history of helping Georgia's children and stepping up when others could not. Our mission is to provide youth and families in crisis with the necessary skills and resources to help heal their hearts, restore their hopes and rebuild their lives. We deliver our mission through a wide range of residential and place based programs to participants and their families that focus on creating success for at-risk teenagers and young adults.
